59,757 Voters Eligible In S.M. County

County Clerk William H. Augustus today announced that 59,757 persons are eligible to vote in San Mateo County at the May 16 consolidated primary election, 8033 less than were registered for the general election in November, 1942.

A total of 67,790 was registered in 1942.

Of those who registered by the Apr. 6 deadline to qualify for the May 16 election, 26,795 were Republicans, 31,024 Democrats, 13 Prohibitionists and 1925 non-particans.

In 1942 there were 28,648 Republicans registered, 36,740 Democrats, 19 Prohibitionists and 2383 non-partisans.

Petitions signed by 327 persons were filed with Augustus yesterday asking that the California Employment and Retirement Mutual Insurance Plan be placed on the November ballot.

The petitions for the iniative constitutional amendment were filed by Mr. and Mrs. Len Follett of East Palo Alto. The plan provides for $60 a month payment beginning in June, 1945, for citizens having the required residence qualifications 60 years of age or over, or totally disabled, including those in military.

Fire Burns Half Acre On Lazy G Ranch

Fire burned over a half-acre area in a grove of pine trees on the Lazy G ranch, 1½ miles north of Sneath Ln. and west of Juniperro Serra, Saturday night.

The county fire department received a call from the ranch, which is owned by Louis Gianni, at 11:45, and battled for three hours to extinguish the blaze. Their efforts were hampered by lack of water pressure, and they used hand shovels to make a cold fire trail to prevent the spread of the flames. The fire was confined to undergrowth and pine needles.

R.C. in Postwar Airline Route

Mayor Floyd D. Granger
Redwood City, Calif.
Dear Mayor:

The Ryan Aeronautical Company, which, through its predecessor, Ryan Airlines Incorporated, pioneered in 1925 the first regularly scheduled year 'round passenger airline service in the United States, is again planning a re-entry in this field of aviation and, through its wholly owned subsidiary, Ryan School of Aeronautics, is making application to the Civil Aeronautics Board at Washington for the franchise to operate an airline feeder pick-up service throughout the state of California.

The city of Redwood City is included by Ryan as one of the communities which we propose to serve in this manner. Enclosed is a map which shows the relationship of your city to the route. We believe we may safely assume that there is not a city, town or village in the United States today which would not find local airmail service to be of inestimable aid in the transaction of business and private correspondence. Ryan has the organization which by training and experience is in a position to render such service and we trust that our inclusion of the city of Redwood City in out itinerary will meet with the enthusiastic approval of the residents of your community.

Vice President and Gen. Mgr.,
Ryan School of Aeronautics.

Greyhound Ads Ask for Recruits

Mobilizing the power of its newspaper advertising behind the armed forces, Pacific Greyhound Lines has run four advertisements in the past few months to stimulate recruiting. The first was for the Seabees, when the branch of the navy was in urgent need of construction mechanics in the Pacific. This was followed in succession by large advertisements for the WAVES, Women's Reserve of the Marine Corps, and the WAC. The latter advertisement appears in the Tribune. Each advertisement was run in more than 500 western newspapers.

S.C. Council Re-elects A. H. Sagehorn as Mayor; Menlo Park Picks Fisher

A few minutes after he had received his certificate of re-election to the Redwood City City Council, Walter W. Hilton was unanimously elected as mayor to succeed Floyd D. Granger Tuesday night.

The meeting was a special one to conform with the state ruling allowing absentee ballots to be counted up until midnight on the Monday following the election day, which is the day provided in the city charter for the vote canvass.

The absentee ballots totaled 15, of which two were declared ineligible and two arrived too late. Of the 11 included in the returns, five were servicemen. Absentee ballot count was:

George W. McNulty	8
W. J. McKeegan	8
L. C. Christensen	5
Ole Oleson	7
W. W. Hilton	3
C. C. Armstrong	3
Floyd D. Granger	4

Including the absentee ballots the total vote as checked against the tabulation by City Clerk Ralph Dodge and City Manager Robert Mead, was:

George W. McNulty	1353
W. J. McKeegan	1080
L. C. Christensen	1122
Ole Oleson	1017
W. W. Hilton	1308
C. C. Armstrong	1245
Floyd D. Granger	1371

The total ballots cast were 2322.

Servicemen's votes included four navy men and one from the army. They were Kenneth Bowen, Isadore Brazil, Edgar A. Hilton and William A. Werder, navy; and Leslie Rudy, army.

Hilton was nominated for the office of mayor by Councilman Armstrong and elected unanimously after Council Britschgi made the motion that the nominations be closed.

In the first official act of the council after certificates of election and oaths of office had been given to the re-elected councilmen, C. C. Armstrong, George W. McNulty, Floyd D. Granger and W. W. Hilton, the council approved the newly formed Redwood City Community Commission.

Upon the motion of Councilman Armstrong, the council voted to pass a resolution indorsing and approving the organization of the Redwood City Community Council and recognizing the community commission as an official commission of the city.

The constitution and by-laws of the community council were submitted by Doris M. Dean, chairman, and read to the council by City Clerk Dodge.

Each councilman in accepting office again and Mayor Hilton in accepting his new office expressed appreciation of the faith expressed by Redwood City voters while councilmen retaining office who were not up for re-election pledged support to the new mayor. The latter group included Harold Anderson, Carl Britschgi and Evans Fletcher.

In a quiet aftermath to a heated election battle, A. H. Sagehorn Tuesday was re-elected mayor of San Carlos and the three elected councilmen took oath of office.

Two re-elected incumbents, Sagehorn and E. R. Burton, and one new member of the council, Patrick Kearns, were sworn into office.

Absentee ballots were counted by City Clerk Beatrice Roberts, with Mayor Sagehorn leading the way. Totals of absentee votes were:

E. R. Burton	8
Donald L. Lilly	7
A. H. Sagehorn	11
Harvey Carlyon	7
Patrick Kearns	5
E. R. Drotleff	10
W. J. Lucy	0

Mrs. Beatrice Roberts, re-elected incumbent city clerk, received all 16 absentee votes over her opponent, Robert W. Dyer Sr.

Mayor Sagehorn appointed the following commissioners: Roy Gover, sidewalks and parks; Patrick Kearns, health and safety; Truman S. Waterman, light and power and E. R. Burton, fire and police.

Meanwhile at Menlo Park, the city council accepted the resignations of Mayor Charles Oram and Councilman William Cutter and Roy L. Grey and Wallace H. Brown were selected to fill the vacant posts.

Donald Fisher, who led the voting in the recent election, was elected as mayor. Fisher and Lloyd Newmann, elected councilmen, took oath of office along with Mrs. Margaret Becker, city clerk.

Commissioners appointed were Lloyd Newmann, police; Charles Burgess, streets; Wallace Brown, parks and recreation; and Roy Grey, health and lights.

The council adjourned to Apr. 25, the regular meeting night.

At Burlingame, Councilman Peter Dahl succeeded Frank Burrows as mayor. Burrows was not a candidate at the recent election. J. J. Ross was elected by the council to serve as vice mayor.

Taking oath of office were Councilmen L. J. Harris, Leon Whitsell and Allen Hunt, and City Treasurer Mrs. Ida Coe. Herbert White, re-elected city clerk will be given the oath of office by his commanding officer in India where White is stationed.

Recreation Department Plans Pet Show

This show which is open to all children in Redwood City will include general pets which may run from ants to ducks to elephants.

Perry, Youth Admit Defiling Girl's Body

Indications today in Dist. Atty. Gilbert D. Ferrell's office were that 19 graves at Holy Cross Cemetery at Menlo Park, new since 32-year-old Walter J. Perry took employment there, will be opened for investigation.

Chief Dep. Dist. Atty. Louis B. Dematteis said that no definite decision had been reached on the opening of the graves, but he said he was compiling a list of persons who have been buried at the cemetery since Perry took employment there as caretaker and gravedigger Dec. 27. Should it be decided to open the graves, it would be necessary to secure permission from the health department, coroner, the cemetery and relatives of the deceased, Dematteis declared.

Several relatives have contacted funderal homes and the district attorney's office requesting that an investigation be made to determine if other bodies had been molested by Perry and Cole M. Madison, 18, of Mountain View.

Meantime, the district attorney's office late Monday received a report from Dr. Stuart Lindsay, University of California pathologist, declaring that his examinations showed that the body of Dolores Sifuentes, 21, of Redwood City, had been ravished. Both Madison and Perry admitted to members of Sheriff James J. McGrath's force last night that they had committed the crime, Chief Dep. Sheriff Walter Moore reported today.

Chief Deputy Moore and Special Investigator Frank Marlowe of the district attorney's office Monday took Madison to San Jose in search of four rings Madison said had been taken from bodies at the cemetery, but they were unable to locate them.

Madison said he had taken one of the rings from a coffin and that Perry had taken the other three from coffins. Madison said he gave the rings to a man whose name he claimed not to know and the man took them to a San Jose pawn shop and sold them for 50 cents apiece. Madison said he didn't know if any of the rings were wedding rings.

The Santa Clara County sheriff's office had been seeking Madison since Dec. 29 for theft of two watches from the home of J. B. Bernard in Los Altos. Madison admitted to San Mateo County deputies that he had taken the watches and sold one in a San Jose pawn shop for $20 and another to a man near Coyote in Santa Clara County for $3. Both watches have been recovered.

Perry said he opened most of the coffins before he buried the bodies. He said he did not open all 19 of them, however, Moore reported. Perry also denied molesting any other body. Madison also made the same denial.

Moore last night asked the two men why they did not put the body of the Sifuentes girl back into the casket and Madison replied, "I don't know. I guess it's just meanness."

Perry and Madison earlier had confessed to mutilating the girl's body. The missing part of the girl's body has been found, it was reported today.

Perry and Madison were arraigned in Justice Edward I. McAuliffe's court here yesterday and preliminary hearing was set for Apr. 26 at 2 p.m. Bail has been set at $2500 cash or $5000 bond each.

County War Chest To Prepare Budget

The executive committee and the budget and admission committee of the San Mateo County War Chest, Inc., as their first step in the development of a county quota for our War and Community Appeals in the campaign this Fall, are forwarding to the local agencies who participated in the drive in October, 1943, an application form for them to execute, which will give the budget and admission committee the necessary information for their careful consideration.

Any agency which feels that it will meet the eligibility required may submit their request and certified budget for review.

It is necessary that these budgets, with all the required data, be received at the War Chest headquarters, 1211 Burlingame Ave., Burlingame, not later than June 15, 1944.

Before World War II the United States imported more than a million tons of cinnamon from Ceylon annually.

S.M. County School Districts Get Dividend of $68,045

San Mateo County Elementary School districts got an extra dividend of $68,045 of state money under the terms of 1943 legislation, by which the legislature raised the minimum salary of elementary teachers from $1320 to $1500 a year and increase state aid to the elementary schools from $1400 to $1570 per teacher unit, the schools subcommittee of the joint legislative committee on state tax structure, studying the results of the 1943 legislation, found.

"Only $9788 was actually needed to bring all elementary teachers salaries in the county up to the state minimum," study by the committee shows. This means the school districts in the county got $58,257 more than was needed to comply with the minimum salary provision. The total apportionment by the state to the elementary schools in the county for 1943-44 was $755,458.

Over the state, $4,203,421 of additional state money was apportioned this year, with only $397,147 actually needed to bring all elementary teachers salaries to the $1500 minimum. The state paid school districts $3,806,274 more than was needed to comply with the changed law. Total apportionment for the elementary schools was $46,651,293 for 1943-44.

The 1943 legislation raised elementary teachers minimum salary from $1320 to $1500 for 1943-44 and 1944-45 and, in effect, increased the state payment to the districts for 1943-44 from $1400 to $1570 per teacher unit, the committee explained. The legislation was not safeguarded so that the added state funds could be used only to bring salaries below the newly established minimum up to the $13500 level.

"The state should help only districts which need help to bring minimum salaries to the $1500 level," the committee holds. "Certainly additional opportionments should not be made to districts which have not exhausted local resources."

"It is difficult to foresee any hardship resulting to elementary schools if they are apportioned additional money for 1944-45 only if they reached their statutory tax limit as of 1942-43," Assemblyman Lee T. Bashore of Glendora, chairman of the subcommittee on schools, stated. "The state has been generous in subventions to schools so that a good educational program can be offered throughout the state. The districts, however, should help themselves."

Drive Nets 750 Tons Of Scrap Paper

The war effort has been forwarded to the extent of 750 tons of paper salvaged from San Mateo County, a survey conducted by the county war council revealed today.

"We feel that this is a fine showing and are glad to report that once again the citizens of the county have done well their part," Theodore Lilienthal, County War Council director, declared and added that it is extremely important that people take this waste paper drive, currently in progress, seriously.

Papers are being collected from local homes, he pointed out, if tied in bundles of approximately 50 pounds and stacked beside the garbage cans or at the curb. The garbage collectors act as agents and turn them to the war effort.

Frank Kent Succeeds Frayne as Chairman

Frank Kent, Daly City, has been named chairman of the San Mateo Democratic County Committee, replacing Pat Frayne, who has resigned.

Frayne, who lives on Laurel Terrace, resigned from the committee after receiving his appointment as information specialist for the War Relocation Authority of the U. S. Department of Interior. Under provisions of the Hatch Act, federal employes may not participate in political organizations.

Most recently employed as assistant day editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, Frayne has long been identified with California newspapers. He was sports editor of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin for a number of years, and before that was a Los Angeles and Sacramento newspaperman. He also served as secretary of the Newspaper Guild.

The War Relocation Authority is in charge of relocation and segregation centers for people of Japanese ancestry evacuated from the West Coast area. The San Francisco office covers the states of Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona and Nevada.

A. L. Boucher Resigns As Bank Manager

SAN CARLOS—A. L. Boucher of Phelps Rd., San Carlos, has submitted his resignation as manager of the San Carlos branch of the Bank of America in order to become business manager and a partner in the Glass Engineering Laboratories of San Carlos.

Mr. Boucher was with the Bank of America in Burlingame for 10 years before coming to San Carlos about four years ago. He is president of the San Carlos Chamber of Commerce.

Cabrals Purchase Moore Ranch

Purchase of the Moore Ranch for $30,000 by Joseph and Evelyn Cabral of San Mateo was recorded in the office of the county recorder today.

The property, covering 1719 acres, is located just south of Pescadero and extends through San Mateo and Santa Cruz Counties along the coast. The ranch was purchased from William A. Horton and James A. Moore of Santa Cruz. California Pacific Title Insurance Co. handled the transaction.

Dusel Urges V-Gardens In This Area

With a national demand for 20 per cent more victory gardens in 1944 and indications showing that the Redwood City area is behind schedule, John P. Dusel, chairman of the Redwood City Home Food Production Committee, today urged potential gardeners to plant now.

"Last year approximately 40 billion jars of processed foods were canned by patriotic Americans. In 1944, the government informs us that we must can 50 billion jars," Dusel stated.

"Raising our own food will help win the war. An abundance of fresh vegetables, fresh eggs, and meat will protect our health," the chairman added.

There are four sources of information in home food production available in Redwood City, Dusel revealed. Included are:

1. The county agricultural office, 1839 Broadway (phone RC 2183), will answer questions about soils, plants and fertilizers.

2. The Redwood City Library has a table with information about vegetables and small animal raising.

3. The San Mateo County Library has a similar section with books and bulletins about home food production.

4. The gardening Dept. of Sequoia High School has bulletins and pamphlets available to students. Vegetable plants are being sold to students and faculty.

IN POETRY CONTEST

Receiving honorable mention in the annual University of Redlands' Browning Poetry Contest was Anne Potter of Redwood City. Anne's entry was in the high school division judged by Dr. Lionel Stevenson of the University of Southern California.

First Round Of Hearing Held Today

First round of the battle between County Executive Frederick Peterson and Dr. Charles C. Gans, director of the San Mateo County Health and Welfare Dept., staged before the County Civil Service Commission Wednesday found:

1. Three members of the County Grand Jury refusing to divulge information they had secured from witnesses who had been called before them to determine the conditions at Community Hospital.

2. The chairman of the County Health and Welfare Board declaring that he had not read a report from a citizens' committee he had appointed to determine conditions at Community Hospital.

3. Peterson personally presenting his side of the case in his attempt to dismiss Dr. Gans from his office.

4. Dr. Gans taking the stand and answering questions asked him by his own counsel, Ernest Wilson.

James L. Porter, member of the grand jury and first witness to take the stand, said he was at a loss to know how far he should go, as a member of the grand jury. Asst. Dist. Atty. Daniel E. Sullivan ,asked for an opinion, declared that grand jury members are under oath not to reveal what goes on in their meetings.

Porter declared that when he called on Dr. Gans during the investigation that Dr. Gans "failed to give many direct answers as to records, which records also involve Mr. Packwood (James Packwood, secretary to Dr. Gans), leaving us with something of the impression that neither man was very clear in his own mind as to what those records and written directives from his office really meant nor where they were intended to go nor whether they ever got there."

Porter said he was led to believe one of two things:

1. "That there was a lack of understanding as to who had authority to run Dr. Gans' office, or

2. "There were political implications in the background which would make some people wonder who they worked for."

Attorney Wilson objected to Porter's testimony as being too vague and Wilson and Peterson barked their personal dislike for each other until Commission Chmn. L. G. Owen pounded his gavel to quiet the two.

E. F. B. Ridgway, a member of the grand jury committee which investigated conditions at Community Hospital, refused to testify. He presented a list of the witnesses who were called befor the grand jury, however, and Owen declared these witnesses may be supoenaed before the commission.

The witnesses were Mrs. Irene Couse, Mrs. Mary E. Farrell, Dr. H. W. S. Hayes, Dr. Nelson Johnson, Dr. Beatrice Lee, Mrs. Florence Provo, Mrs. Sarah M. West and Miss Mabel Wilson.

Robert P. Holliday, foreman of the grand jury, testified that he never had been to Community Hospital and declared that "as a member of the grand jury I am not at liberty to tell what the witnesses testified under oath."

Holliday said that he had told Dr. Gans he felt the condition at Community Hospital was deplorable and that several things needed to be done, including installation of a septic tank, establishing the office of a fulltime business manager, hiring a fulltime housekeeper and firing the dietician. He said that Dr. Gans told him these items either had been or would be taken care of except in the case of the dietician. He said that Dr. Gans told him that the dietician would be removed when Dr. Hayes, superintendent at the hospital, recommended her dismissal.

Dr. N. D. Morrison Sr., chairman of the County Health and Welfare Board, testified that he had appointed Sam D. Merk and Mrs. Elsa McGinn to investigate conditions at the county hospital but that he had not read the report. The report was turned over to Miss Pansy J. Abbott, secretary of the board, he stated.

Dr. Gans declared that he had attempted to carry out the requests of Peterson as well as he could. Dr. Gans left the stand at the informal hearing this morning in favor of Holliday. He was to take the stand again this afternoon.

GARDEN: Wilson Describes Methods for Ant Control

BY ROLLY LANGLEY

Having found that the ants out our way are fond of several of the better ant poisons on the market, I've never been forced to study the creatures closely, and found the talk Frank E. Wilson of Walnut Creek gave to the Santa Clara County Men's Garden Club most interesting. So his talk was reported in this column, and that was the last of it until this letter came from a licensed pest control operator in Palo Alto—Robert E. Hackley. Without any intention of starting a feud, but to give greenthumbers further food for thought, here's part of the letter:

"Your garden column is remarkable for the good sense it contains. But the materials on ants appearing recently and attributed to Mr. Wilson is not entirely in accord with what I have observed in the ant world during many years of practical experience with the Argentine ant.

"I do not find that these ants have any objection to feeding from a bottle or can that contains dead ants. On the contrary, it is a common experience to find feeders completely emptied of poison and with a large accumulation of dead ants, dry as dust ,in the bottom.

"Dead animal matter in a feeder may at times develop a flavor that will keep ants away, but Argentine ants have no sentimental, or intellectual, or practical objection to feeding amidst the bodies of their dead. We find them doing it time after time.

"The idea that ants have a very high intelligence, rivaling that of man, is a much exaggerated notion. I have never seen an instance of ants "sealing off" a poison as a safety measure. The claim that they do this is probably based on the fact that they often deposit bits of earth and trash about the orifices of feeders and in and upon the poison. Where an ant can has only a small opening, such a deposit might have the appearance of a seal. But in my experience and that of others, ants feed especially where the deposits are made.

"I was much puzzled by this trash depositing habit until I observed Argentine ants building up debris over a mealybug infestation in the crown of an iris plant. The actions at the iris and the ant can are so similar that they very likely are each a manifestation of one and the same instinctive drive. A government bulletin alludes to this practice and describes it as the building of shelters to protect sucking insects from their enemies, thus insuring continuance of the ants' supply of honeydew. A reproduction of a photograph shows such shelters built upon a twig.

"Whether or not ants build shelters for the purpose of protecting their food supply, I am willing to leave for the entomologists to decide. For my part I do not find any indication of high intelligence in an ant treating an ant poison can the same way it treats a juicy collection of mealybugs. The notion that ants associate poison with death seems to me to be contrary to the facts I have observed.

". . . Unfortunately, the best known remedies are not as satisfactory in garden use as is desired. . . . My own observations and experiments give me strong hopes that better remedies will be developed. . . . With kindest regards—Robert E. Hackley."

So now you have two sides—two views on ants, which should be enough to show how important a role these pests play, and to remind all that control is possible—should be carried on as a regular department of garden maintenance.

The Nine Counties Victory Garden Advisory Board meets this afternoon in the Little Theater at the Oakland Garden Show. Dave Graves of Alameda will be chairman of the day ,and Home Food Production Broad chairmen of the Central California counties are expected to put forth the cream of their efforts in a round robin exchange of ideas. Good for gardening.

Then at 3:15 Cabbages and Queens will be presented from the floor of the Victory Garden Show. . . . Hope you can make it.

the PIT

A GREAT RIVER GENERATES THE POWER OF HALF-MILLION HORSES

P. G. and E.'s interconnected system of more than 50,000 miles of power lines serves one million electric customers, 73,000 farms, 27,000 industries, 80 military establishments with a dependable electric supply at low rates.

Like an Indian fantasy come true, the white-maned Pit River, tamed and bridled in a chain of powerhouses, works for the farmer, the miner, the lumberman, the shipbuilder, the housewife and the armed forces—at the flip of a switch.

The Pit River Basin is one of the most remarkable and abundant sources of water in the United States. It is a land literally cushioned with water. Gigantic underground lava-rock caverns store the rains and melting snows of winter and spring. Thousands of springs drain this subterranean water into the Pit River. Here flows in one day enough water to supply all the cities of the San Francisco bay region for an entire year. During the summer low of the Sacramento River the Pit delivers by far the major portion of that stream's flow.

In the Pit Basin, this company now operates a chain of four powerhouses—Hat Creek No. 1, Hat Creek No. 2, Pit No. 1 and Pit No. 3. At Pit No. 3 the entire river is diverted into a tunnel as wide as a highway, and sent surging through the powerhouse turbines.

Pit No. 5 powerhouse, again utilizing the full flow of the river, will be connected into service within a fortnight. Thus this company's electric generating capacity from this great source of hydroelectric energy is increased to nearly HALF-MILLION HORSEPOWER.

When Pit No. 5 goes on the line the total electric capacity of this company will be raised to nearly THREE-MILLION HORSEPOWER — an amount greater than Bonneville and Grand Coulee combined.

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

Julia says— Give a Spring lilt to your menus

THE CALENDAR says it's Spring—so why not add some of Spring's fresh liveliness to mid-April meals?

Of course there are the fairly obvious things we can do, such as using the gay mats and table covers of last summer again, and bringing out bright-hued dishes, and putting the early blossoms from the garden to good use.

And it's easy to add a Spring lilt to an entire menu! Here are some suggestions that will show you what I have in mind—perhaps they will give you some ideas for putting springtime into a dinner, this week:

I'd start the meal with a Springtime Highball of combined chilled fruit juices (canned, fresh, or leftovers, with a little lemon juice added).

Then I'd serve an Early Spring Meat Ring (use your favorite meat loaf recipe; bake in well greased 1½-qt. ring mold in moderate oven—350° F. —1 hour or until done; unmold, and serve hot or cold).

To fill this ring, I'd use Deviled Creamed Potato Balls and Peas (boil large white potatoes and cut into balls with melon cutter or spoon to make them look like new potatoes; cook enough peas to make two cups; make white sauce, adding 1½ tsps. mustard, ¼ tsp. paprika, ½ tsp. salt and ½ tsp. Worcestershire sauce, and pour over potato balls and peas). The potato trimmings, incidentally, are fine for later use, hash browned or in patties.

Alongside, I'd have Harlequin Slaw (toss shredded carrots and sliced celery in French dressing, and serve on crisp lettuce or water cress, topped with a dash of mayonnaise).

Or a sprightly Morning Sunshine Fruit Salad would add a lively touch (slice peeled orange or grapefruit into ½-inch circles, cover with mixed salad fruits, and garnish with tart lemon dressing).

Served piping hot would be Cloverleaf Biscuits (divide the amount of dough for each normal biscuit into three parts, and lay them on the pan so they touch at the center, in cloverleaf fashion).

1 pkg. lemon-flavored gelatin
2 cups hot water
2 cups coarsely shredded raw apple
¼ cup lemon juice
⅛ tsp. salt
1 cup evaporated milk
¼ cup sugar

Dissolve gelatin in hot water in large bowl; chill until thick and syrupy. Shred apple; add lemon juice as soon as apple is shredded, to prevent darkening; add salt. Freeze milk in refrigerator tray until ice crystals form along edge; beat with rotary beater until thick; add sugar gradually, beating until it holds peaks. Beat gelatin with rotary beater until light and fluffy. Fold in apple mixture and whipped milk. Chill. Makes 8 generous servings.

COMMUTERS: Many Guests At Thursday's Dinner

BY JOE CABOOSE

The Commuters' dinner meeting last Thursday assumed the proportions of a "civic affair." In addition to sixty or more members in attendance the guest list included such celebrities as "Dapper Dan" Lebo, the Commuters' favorite pin-up boy; Mayor Floyd Granger, just back from the political wars, victorious and unscarred; Ferris W. Miles, president of the chamber of commerce, who made one of the best short talks we ever heard, and Ned ("Old Smoothie") Butler, who has been giving one-a-day brand pills to the chamber membership.

Among new members introduced was Harrison Call, assemblyman; and among old members who took a bow and got a big hand were Chester Armstrong, just re-elected to the city council, and Secy. Bill McKeegan, a close but unsuccessful contender for the council.

It was truly the carriage trade that turned out. The only one who didn't appreciate it was George Sodini, who had set up for fifty dinners . . . and close to seventy were needed. Service was unavoidably slow, both in the dining room and in the pink zebra room adjoining. Al Armitage and Clarence Brizee, both of whom worked their way through reform school by waiting on table, helped out with the service. (In the dining room only. They wouldn't trust them in the zebra room!)

The main attraction was guest speaker Frank P. Bartholomew, vice president and Pacific Coast manager for United Press, who made one of the most interesting and scholarly talks ever heard in Redwood City. "Bart" has charge of all UP war correspondents in the Pacific-Asiatic theater, and has visited every front from Australia to the Aleutians and as far west as the Marshalls and the Gilberts. Consequently when he talks of the Pacific war he knows whereof he speaks.

"Bart" said the war with Japan could end "next week . . . through revolution in Japan," but that the average guess of the men fighting it is that the war will last three years longer. He said the Japs are now in possession of the rich lands they have always wanted—Netherlands East Indies, Philippines, Malaya, Singapore, Burma and certain sections of China, thus giving them the natural resources and basic raw materials such as tin, rubber, oil etc., that they have needed for empire building. He said the fighting so far has been only on the perimeter of their stolen empire ,and that we have not yet assaulted any of their inner bastions.

The turning point of the war, in Bartholomew's opinion, was the battle of Midway, where the Jap Fleet was turned back in its course toward Los Angeles to launch a carrier attack on the highly industrialized section between the city and the Mexican border, including the aircraft producing center, the oil fields and the naval concentrations around San Diego. He said very expert military intelligence tipped our forces off at least eleven days in advance of this plan, as well as the plan to attack at the same time Dutch Harbor, in an effort to draw our main fighting force to the north.

Overheard two commuters on the train talking about the drafting of fathers. Said one: "I don't understand them taking fathers of four and five kids, when there are still young single men available. Notice the drugstore cowboys hanging around the street corners any evening in San Francisco. Kids from 18 to 25 years of age! What's their status?" Answered his friend: "Those boys have agricultural deferments . . . to raise wild oats!"

At the meeting Thursday night, Chairman Wrex Cruse read the report of the club's nominating committee, to-wit: president, John Brand; vice president, Stanley Perkins; secretary, W. J. McKeegan; treasurer, Clarence Brizee; sergeants-at-arms, Bradley Martin and W. J. Curran; new directors, Claude Gerdes, Joseph McClellan, Albert Morgan Jr., Lucien Reiss, Richard tum Suden and Eugene Hoffman. There were no further nominations from the floor. The annual meeting and election will be held next month.

This column is no better than the news and gossip it receives from contributors. Caboose is still working about 60 hours a week on a war job, and has to depend on items furnished by fellow commuters. During the past week not one commuter offered us a single scrap of news. If you want this column, you better help write it . . . or we throw in the towel!

City Probes Unsightly Buildings

In the first step in a potential "housecleaning" of unsightly and unsanitary buildings in Redwood City, the city council Monday considered a list of 10 buildings submitted by Fire Chief Mark Ryan, Bldg. Insp. Laurie Duncan and Health Insp. Emil Stein.

The list was submitted to the council after a careful inspection of unsightly buildings in the city. Individual lists were given to each councilman last night for further study.

The list included a barber shop at 1606 Main St.; two rooms next to Paulson's garage on Main St.; a three room shack formerly used as a restaurant on El Camino and Woodside Rd.; a two-room shack and barn at 1648 Valota Rd.; a garage at 1125 Warren St.; a trailer house on Lot 8, Block 114; an old shed on Lot 22, Block 5, Vera Ave.; an old shed at 1703 Roosevelt Ave.; an old shack at 1226 Allerton St.; and an old shack on Lots 11 and 12, Block 13.

It was announced last night that City Atty. Paul McCarthy will be present at a hearing on the consolidation of Redwood City bus lines, set for Apr. 26 at 10 a.m. in the court house. At that time the application of R. F. Martin for an order consolidating certificates of public convenience and necessity owned by him to unify operation of same and an order to remove certain restrictions imposed upon his operation between Redwood City and Palo Alto will be considered.

The question of six lanes on Main St. to include two live parking lanes was closed after City Atty. McCarthy read section 586-H of the vehicle code which prohibits double parking on a public highway.

The council instructed the city clerk to advise the traffic committee that in view of McCarthy's opinion and a letter received from the State Highway Dept. that the council cannot comply with the recommendation.

The council adopted a resolution declaring Vic. Mitchell's Blacksmith Shop a nuisance which will require that the building be torn down and removed within 30 days. In an answer to an order to show cause, owners L. M. Mitchell and Jose Rose Jr. indicated that they could tear the building down in that time but questioned the possibility of having it entirely removed.

In regard to the cutting up of houses into one and two-room apartments, City Atty. McCarthy reported "progress," stating that the city attorneys of all Peninsula cities were planning a meeting in the near future to draw up a uniform code for control of such cutting.

The council accepted the resignation of Joseph Corbett from the board of review.

A complaint was received from F. B. Kearse, 305 Pine St. stating that the street sweeping machine cannot pass over the Pine St. railroad crossing and sidewalk.

The council adopted a resolution that all weeds be destroyed in the final step of the annual weed abatement proceedings.

In another resolution, the council accepted deeds to a dozen lots from the county through Tax Collector Ralph MacArthur.

An application from Herbert C. Schultz, 2015 El Camino Real, to operate a cafe with a beer license at 2025 Broadway was approved with provision that the establishment meet the health and building requirements.

Dance permits approved were to Court Madrone 153, Howard Frederic, the Peninsula Lodge of Elks, the Women of the Moose, and permits to hold rummage sales were granted to the American Legion of San Carlos and the San Carlos Pilgrim Fellowship.

Mrs. Koempel Loses in Court

The jury of six men and six women in the suit of Mrs. Olive Jean Koempel against officials of Redwood City and San Mateo County brought in a verdict for the defendents Tuesday on the second count, in which she charged removal and destruction of animals belonging to her.

On the first cause of action, which charged false arrest and imprisonment, the jurors were hopelessly deadlocked 8-4 according to the foreman, Joseph G. Bye, and were accordingly dismissed by Judge Andrew R. Schottky, of Mariposa County, who sat on the case.

Mrs. Koempel's claim for $16,950 damages for damage to property was struck out on motion of City Atty. Paul A. McCarthy, representing the defendants, upon conclusion of presentation of Mrs. Koempel's case by her attorney, William Penaat. McCarthy contended that proof of damage had not been established.

The false arrest charge was based on Mrs. Koempel's removal from her premises, which were declared a health menace, upon advice of city and county health officials. Mrs. Koempel was taken to Community Hospital for care and observation as to her mental condition. This, the plaintiff declared, constituted illegal arrest and imprisonment. The defense maintained the action was necessary in view of the extraordinary circumstances of the case, and said the improvement in Mrs. Koempel's condition and circumstances justified the action.

"The verdict of the jury is a vindication of the actions of the defendants," McCarthy said today. "It is an endorsement of the propriety of the course they followed in these extraordinary circumstances."

Mrs. Koempel may require a new trial before the same judge or another judge, either with or without a jury, on the charge of false imprisonment.

While the jury was out, Judge Schottky sat as a court of equity in connection with abatement proceedings brought by the city council, in which the buildings on Mrs. Koempel's property as 429 Howland St. were condemned. As a result of the proceedings during which the judge inspected the premises, the restraining order preventing Mrs. Koempel from entering the premises was modified. Under the supervision of health officers, she will be allowed to remove any material which may be salvaged without presenting a health hazard. Rubbish is to be burned, the buildings are to be destroyed, with the exception of such parts of the main structure as can be left without endangering health, and the ground is to be scraped. Meanwhile, Mrs. Koempel is restrained from living on the premises, and Judge Schottky will conduct a hearing on May 8 to insure that the proceedings have been properly carried out.

Jurors in Mrs. Koempel's suit were Foreman Bye, Thomas J. Flynn, Oneto L. Costello, Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Mrs. Harry Peckham, Mrs. Gertrude F. Newton, Robert Fowle, Isabelle W. Pearson, Harry F. Hooper, Margaret C. McClure, Robert Roccucco and Charles William Wittman.

The value of property destroyed by fire in 1943 was $381,000,000—or 21 per cent more than in 1942.

Charles Sturz Gets Citation

"His calm disregard for his own personal safety and gallant devotion to duty were an inspiration to his comrades and in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

Those words were written of Lt. (jg) Charles E. Sturz of Menlo Park in a citation which accompanied a Navy and Marine Corps Medal, awarded to him for heroic conduct while serving a naval vessel during a night engagement in the Solomons Islands area last October.

Although her son has not yet written that he has received the medal, Mrs. Hans Sturz feels sure it is for action on the Chevalier when it was sunk off Vella la Vella. He had already received the Order of the Purple Heart for wounds received then.

A story released by the Navy Department quotes from the citation:

"When his ship was torpedoed by the enemy, Lieutenant (jg) Sturz (then ensign) although stunned and bleeding profusely from a head wound, courageously entered a flooded compartment and assisted in the rescue of several seriously injured crew members, before he himself would submit to medical treatment."

Lieutenant Sturz is now in New Caledonia, according to his mother.

Major Grashio made his only appearance in a meeting open to the public in Redwood City, when he appeared in connection with the Red Cross drive for 1944 war funds. He holds the Distinguished Service Cross, two Silver Stars and five unit citations.

S.F. Sea Scouts Visit Redwood City Base

Forty-four officers and men from the San Francisco Sea Scout Ships Viking and Flying Cloud spent Saturday night at the base of the SSS Challenger 145.

The visiting group were entertained in the evening at the Sequoia swimming pool. Skipper Merrinan of the Viking, who is a Palo Alto High School Alumnus, expressed his gratitude in behalf of the visitors.

The Sea Scouts arrived in their two boats under the supervision of Skippers Merriman of the Viking and Anderson of the Flying Cloud; Mate Don Miley; and Quartermasters Warren Cushman, Goe Geher and Dale Slater. Dale is a former member of the Redwood City ship and is now on duty with the United States Merchant Marine.

George W. Dowrie To Speak Here

George W. Dowrie, professor of finance of the Graduate School of Business at Stanford University, will be speaker for the third monthly luncheon of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce, to be held at Sodini's Apr. 25.

Topic for the meeting is "Post-war Finance."

Professor Dowrie is a nationally known authority on finance, according to Ferris W. Miles, president of the chamber, who invited the speaker to come to Redwood City.
